

DSA Spring Event 2025

This will take place in the Cathedral Close, Salisbury, on Tuesday 8th April 2025

The event is open to DSA Members, their partners, and guests. The DSA also welcomes attendees from affiliated organisations.

Rifles Museum

The event will start at the Rifles' Museum with the following schedule:

- 10:30 Arrival and Coffee
- 11:00 Talk 1 'The New Forest in WW2' by Marc Heighway
- noon Talk 2 'German Map Making in WW2 (with a comparison with British Mapping of the period) by Merryn Walters
- 13:00 Buffet Lunch
- 14:00 View Map Collection / Private viewing of the museum
- 14:30 Dispersal

Other attractions:

- It is anticipated that all attendees will enjoy Talk 1. However, as Talk 2 is more specialist, some attendees may care to take the opportunity to visit other attractions in Cathedral Close and rejoin the meeting at lunchtime.
- The organising committee has also made a provisional booking for a guided tour of Salisbury Cathedral, commencing at 14:30 and lasting an hour. There will be an additional charge, and booking must be made in advance to secure the reduced rate.
- Other venues include:

Salisbury Cathedral

Salisbury

Arundells
Home of Rt Hon Edward
Heath

Mompesson House
National Trust

Parking

- Cathedral Close (via North/High Street gate) £10 for the whole day
- Old George Mall Car Park, 6 New Street, SP1 2PH £7.90 for the whole day

Accessibility

- The event will occur on the first floor, with a stair lift to the landing. Then, it is six steps up to the meeting room.
- Attendees can be dropped off outside the museum.

Dietary considerations

- Any dietary considerations should be passed to secretary@defencesurveyors.org.uk.

Booking

- Booking and payment are via the following link:
Defence Surveyors Association event tickets from TicketSource.
- The cost of the event is £35 per person. DSA Members have a £5 reduction. (Cost per DSA member is £30). Details are on "Ticket Source".
- The cost of access to the Cathedral and a guided tour is £9 per person. Tickets can be purchased at the entrance on the day but will cost £12.

