

Defence Geography: Past, Present and Future

Simon Trew: Mapping NW Europe from Normandy to Berlin (to be confirmed)

John Fennell: Multi-National Geo in Afghanistan

Richard Blunt: NATO and Intelligence

Jonathan Shears: Space – innovations and manoeuvres you can't see

David Henderson: Digital Geography – the future

Autumn
Seminar

6 October
2026

Newbury

This will be the last of the DSA Seminars

The seminar is open to all interested parties

Timings

1000: Tea, coffee and biscuits

1030: 1st presentation

1130: 2nd presentation

1230: Buffet Lunch: Bar opens

1330: 3rd presentation

1430: 4th presentation

1530: Tea, coffee and biscuits

1600: 5th presentation

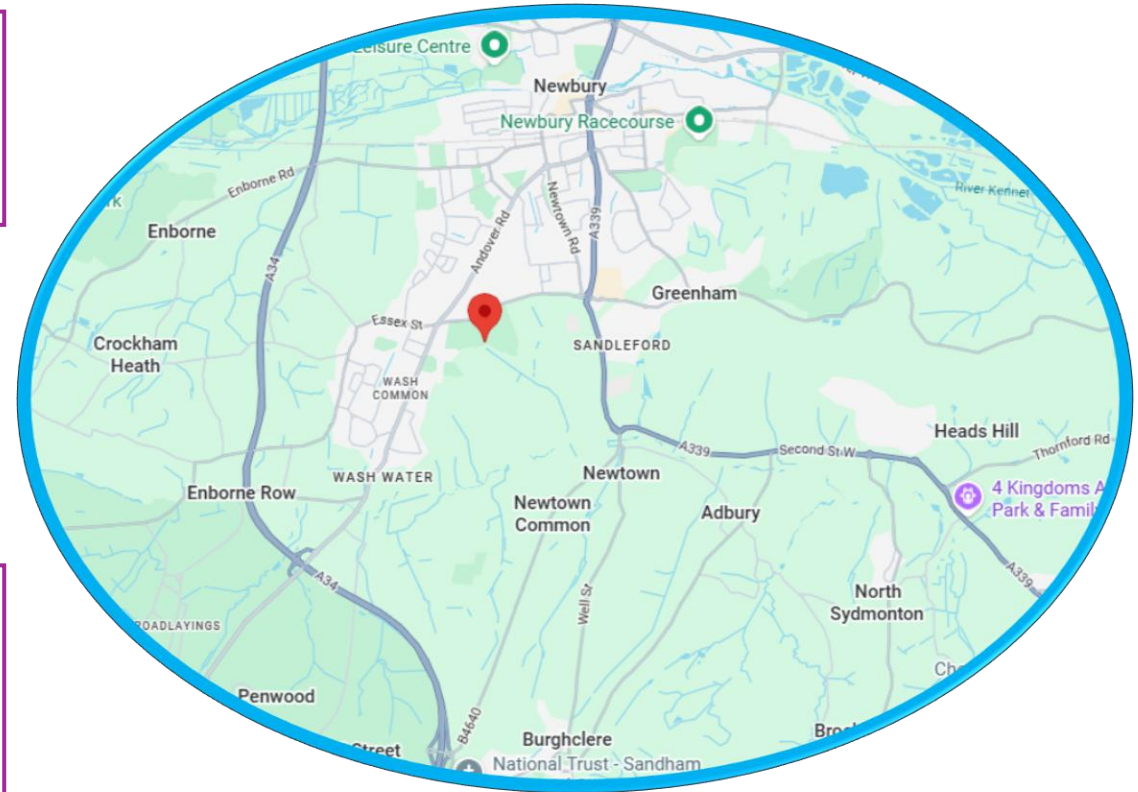

Venue: Newbury Rugby Club

Monks Lane, Newbury, Berkshire RG14 7RW

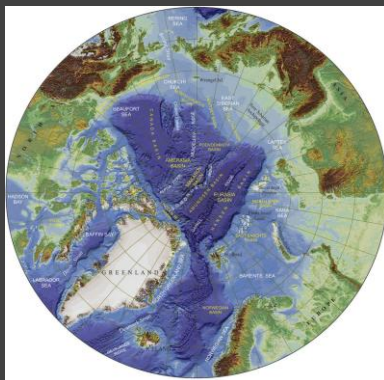

The seminar is open to all interested parties.
There will be plenty of time to mingle and meet, so spouses and friends are warmly welcome too.

Cost:
£35.00 per head, DSA members £30.00.
This covers all refreshments on the day.

Reservations
To book your place, please use the online link below:
Defence Surveyors Association event tickets from TicketSource.
Closing date: Monday 28 September 2026

Ample car parking is available, with lift access from the ground floor to the seminar.

The Arctic –
a NATO Focus?

Autumn Seminar

6 October 2026
Newbury

1944 Brittany, France
660 US Engineers

Digital Geography

Defence Remote Sensing

Geo Cell in Helmand 2009